Great teachers make a difference long after students leave the classroom. They dedicate countless hours to our kids, shaping their futures and guiding them to success. This year, thank a special educator in your life with the perfect gift.

3 ways to say thanks

1

Create a custom gift that's as special as they are

Get the kids involved and share how much they've learned. Write a heartfelt note or craft a gift their teacher will treasure for years to come.

2

Help your teacher relax this summer

After a busy year, they deserve a break. Make their summer one to remember with gift cards to read a good book, catch a movie, grab coffee with a friend, or just have some fun.

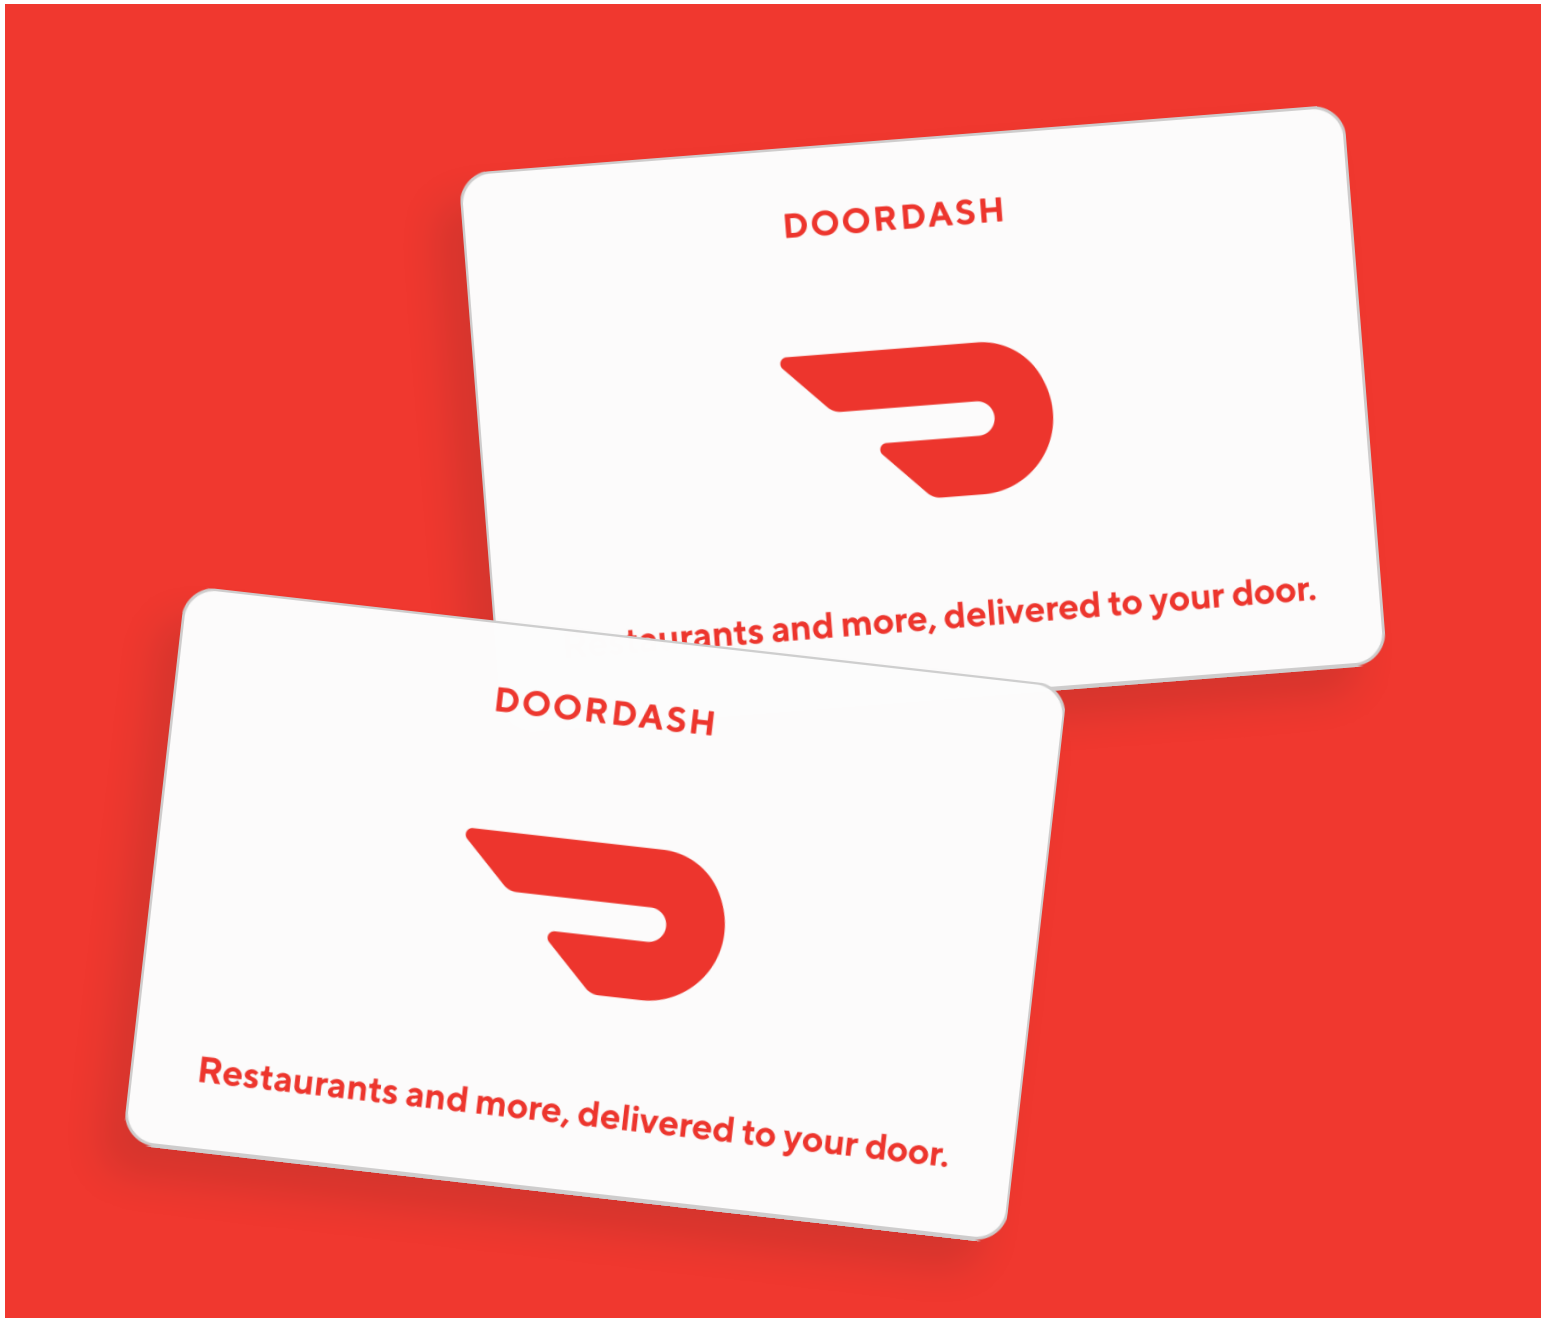

3

Replenish classroom supplies for next year

Help your teacher get a head start on next year's classroom needs. A gift card makes it easy for your teacher to pick out exactly what they need, when they need it.

"I absolutely love this program! Being able to get gift cards at the drop of a hat for birthdays, weddings, holidays, and just because has made my life so easy. As a teacher, I use gift cards to buy supplies for my classroom and in turn, use my earnings to buy more cards to restock the items I need. Plus, I'm also helping out my Home and School Association...a win-win situation!"

5 ways to make Mom feel extra special

Show Mom how much you care with a gift that just gets her. Give her a gift card to her favorite place or use gift cards to plan a special celebration.

1

Make it a lunch date

Treat her to a special lunch together, or give her gift cards for a few of her faves to use whenever she chooses.

2

Homemade meals from the heart

Let Mom pick the recipe; you buy the ingredients. Then, either surprise her with a meal or cook it together.

3

Plant new traditions

Whether you garden together or do yard work together, give her a gift card for an upcoming project (and offer to help).

4

Plan a shopping date

Pamper Mom with a day of shopping her favorite brands. Or, pick out some items that suit her style.

5

A few of Mom's faves

Make Mom a playlist of her favorite songs, let her pick out a book to get lost in, or add to her jewelry collection—either store-bought or homemade.
