Great teachers put in countless hours to help our kids succeed. We feel their impact long after students leave the classroom. This year, show your appreciation for the educators in your life with the perfect gift.

3 ways to say thanks

1

Create a custom gift that's as special as they are

Get the kids involved and share how much they've learned. Write a heartfelt note or craft a gift their teacher will treasure for years to come.

2

Help your teacher relax this summer

They've earned some time to relax and unplug. Give them the gift of a memorable summer with gift cards to read a good book, catch a movie, grab coffee, or just have some fun.

3

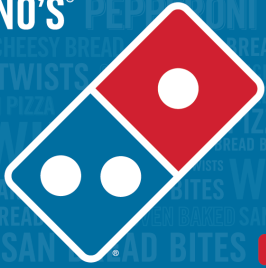

Replenish classroom supplies for next year

Help your teacher restock the classroom for next year. A gift card makes it easy for your teacher to pick out exactly what they need, when they need it.

"I absolutely love this program! Being able to get gift cards at the drop of a hat for birthdays, weddings, holidays, and just because has made my life so easy. As a teacher, I use gift cards to buy supplies for my classroom and in turn, use my earnings to buy more cards to restock the items I need. Plus, I'm also helping out my Home and School Association...a win-win situation!"

5 ways to make Mom feel extra special

Show mom how much you care with a gift that just gets her. Give her a gift card to her favorite place or use gift cards to plan a special celebration.

1	Make it a lunch date Treat her to a special afternoon out together, or give her gift cards for a few of her faves to use whenever she chooses.
2	Homemade meals from the heart The best gift of all is time spent together. Surprise her with a home-cooked meal or spend some quality time in the kitchen making a recipe she loves.
3	Plant new traditions Her garden is her pride and joy (other than her kids, of course). Give her a gift card for an upcoming project or roll up your sleeves and help out.
4	Plan a shopping date Pamper Mom with a day of shopping her favorite brands. Or, pick out some items that suit her style.
5	Treat her to much-needed self-care She spends so much of her time taking care of everyone else. Give her the gift of rest and relaxation with a trip to the salon, a fragrance-filled gift basket, or the latest wellness tech.
